- Do you know the responsibilities for owners and managing agents?
- Do you have a disaster plan in place?

- Do you have a tracking system for residents?
- Do you know how to deal with the press?
- Do you have a current contact list and phone numbers?

This class will offer you an opportunity to develop and implement a disaster plan that meets the requirements as listed in the 4350.1.

Legal/Regulatory Track 10 Tips: Avoiding Legal Problems with Tenants - Evan Loeffler

Complying with landlord-tenant and fair housing laws can be a complicated process with numerous procedural traps for the unwary. Failure to follow the procedures to the letter can result in costly legal matters and a case that drags on for months. Attorney Evan Loeffler will discuss what are the most common missteps he sees in his practice with pre-emptive steps to take to help avoid expensive disputes with tenants before they begin. Topics will include evictions, breaches of the lease, keeping good records, and preparing and serving pre-eviction notices.

This is a great refresher for the seasoned professional and a solid foundation for new landlords, property managers and owners.

Compliance Track Income & Asset Compliance Challenge – Jenny DeSilva, Blueprint Housing

This is an intermediate to advanced level course designed for compliance staff and seasoned managers. This interactive quiz-style session will test how much you really understand how regulatory changes related to income and assets affect your recertification process. In this session, you will examine real world recertification scenarios that will incorporate various elements of new information to be identified, gathered, verified, and recorded in order to maintain leasing compliance. Some scenarios will present new calculation challenges to those that have mastered the fundamentals of annual income and asset calculations.

This class is a must have for managers looking to build upon their basic understanding to be successful in an imperfect world.

Resident Services Track Service Coordinators, Trauma Informed Care, and Dealing With Difficult People– Vancouver Housing Authority

This session will give attendees a general overview at “Trauma Informed Care” and how it is practiced. There will also be a demonstration on dealing with residents with dementia.

Legal/Regulatory Track Update on Residential-Landlord Tenant Law - Evan Loeffler

The last several years have seen some big changes for landlords and tenants in Washington. Attorney Evan Loeffler will go over Federal and local law updates as well as recent case law affecting the industry. Topics will include disparate impact claims under the Fair Housing Act, changes to the RLTA regarding deceased tenants, deposits and abandonment, and limited dissemination of records of unlawful detainer actions, and disposition of tenant's property after an eviction.

This is a great refresher for the seasoned professional and a solid foundation for new landlords, property managers and owners.

Compliance Track Resolution Secrets for EIV Income Discrepancies – Jenny DeSilva, Blueprint Housing

To accurately resolve discrepancies, you must be able to interpret the EIV Income Detail Report and the EIV Income Discrepancy Report. This session will teach participants what types of income EIV does and does not recognize. Next, we will explore the fundamentals of income discrepancies to uncover what triggers a discrepancy and how did EIV calculate the discrepancy amount? Why is the Period of Income (POI) so historical? How do I assess if the discrepancy is valid or not?

By the end of this interactive class, you will have answers to these questions and will be able to confidently dissect and resolve income discrepancies with ease.

Legal/Regulatory Track Understanding Your New VAWA Compliance Obligations – Jenny DeSilva, Blueprint Housing

In November 2016, HUD published the VAWA Final Rule, implementing housing protections authorized in the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 (VAWA) in all of HUD’s covered programs. Did you appropriately react to this new requirement by making the necessary adjustments to your written policies, forms, and recertification procedures?

While some regulatory requirements went into effect on December 16, 2016, owners were provided until December 2017 to implement other requirements like Emergency Transfer Plans. Did you meet this deadline for implementation?

This interactive session will teach participants what protections and options must be provided to VAWA victims regarding their application or current housing assistance. Learn what adjustments must be made in the policies, interview, screening, recertification, and termination processes to comply with this new regulation.
